

Dear Family (brothers & sisters in Christ),

THANK YOU for staying in contact with one another. We give ourselves to be in relationship with one another. Indeed, we are a family where we serve, care for and encourage one another. Please let us know if you have needs. You can contact my cell phone.

The Creek Sheep continue to serve in the communities around us that were hit by the tornado. Pray that their conversations will reflect Christ and that fellowship with believers from other bodies will build the kingdom in addition to any who come to Christ in faith and surrender.

We will provide and online video for a scattered congregational teaching and congregational worship in song. Please keep zooming in your groups or working the phones as you one another one another. Our primary care ministry is really structured through out community groups. God WILL CONTINUE to use our whole body, our groups and life-on-life ministry as we all do our part. As we have seen in this pandemic, being the church is so much more than Sunday mornings. AND oh how good it is to be one, to be together and to dwell in unity.

Continue to remember the gospel. Jesus is the crucified, risen King. Continue to celebrate the life you have in Christ. Be a witness to the impact King Jesus has made in your life. Heather's COVID-19 Easter Testimony has spread to many. We hope people see the impact the Word of God has made on her life before and during her illness.
