

Let's Pray Together

Together is not a popular word around our country lately and especially in our churches. Let me preface this by saying that I'm not a prophet, a called pastor, or anything like that, and I don't pretend to be, but I am a born again, bought by the blood, Jesus follower. The Lord has impressed upon my heart to throw this out there to His people: This Friday, July 17th, anytime Friday, who would commit to fast and pray? Let's fall on our faces before a Holy God who is still in control.

We all know this verse, but do we believe it?

"If My people who are called by My Name will humble themselves and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land." (II Chronicles 7:14)

If we are truly His people and we do these things, it says He will. I am not saying we can get God to do "anything." James 1:2 says, "Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter trials, knowing that the testing of our faith produces endurance." We, as the Church, must fall on our faces together, asking God, the only God, to heal our land and seek His forgiveness and restoration. Not to what we are as individuals or as churches. Let's be the Jesus followers He intended us to be. No, we can't be together at church right now, but as the Church, we should be loving our neighbors, serving, and praying. Praying for our country in turmoil, our elected officials, and the leaders of our churches, and for our churches to rise up as one voice together proclaiming the greatness of our God.

I'll finish with this:

"Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness, come before Him with joyful singing. Know that the Lord Himself is God. It is He who has made us and not we ourselves. We are His people and the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him and bless His Name, for the Lord is good. His lovingkindness is everlasting and His faithfulness to all generations." (Psalm 100:1-5)

I ask you all as believers to take time on Friday to humble yourselves and pray. Let's lift our eyes and hearts and rejoice as the Church. God, send revival.

Pass this along to as many as you can and LET'S PRAY TOGETHER!
