

Dear Kingdom Citizen from "The Creek,"

Colossians 3:16 Let the Word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to god. 17 Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father. 18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be embittered against them.

I pray that the Word dwells in us (abides).

I pray that we teach and admonish one another.

I pray that husbands will love their wives and not be embittered.

Last Wednesday, I began attaching some quotes from a chapter of Love and Respect. I am doing so again this Wednesday. I haven't proofed these very good but wanted you to have access to several of these thoughts. Chapters 9-10 have both been geared more for letting men know what their wife needs from them. Please pray for marriages!

Tonight, we will have prayer, scripture and video around the idea of the persecuted church following up on the movie we saw last week, Tortured for Christ. This will begin at 6:00. Please enter and exit with a mask while they are recommended and not required. The numbers have gone up in the last few days and we want to be aware of that. AWANA will not meet as a result of fall break but please pray for our children to hide God's Word in their hearts this year as they focus on there being JOY in the journey with Jesus. Pray for our teenagers and the home owners of the Ocoee Outreach project they have been working on this week.

Grace and peace to you all. I am very thankful for each of you.

Pastor Stan
