

Dear Believer longing for boldness,

Acts 22:9 And those who were with me saw the light, to be sure, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me... 14 And he said, "The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear an utterance from His mouth.

I pray that we will know His will (for our daily lives).
I pray that we will see the Righteous One.

I connected how verse 9 spoke of seeing the light and verse 14 spoke of seeing the Righteous One in my Bible.

I have attached a Celebration of Life 2021 flyer in regard to tonight, Friday, at 6:30 pm at The Chapel.

We will continue to bring clarity to the Co-Pastor Role and Job Description at the quarterly (members's) business meeting on Sunday afternoon (the 24th) at 4:30 pm in the worship center (along with other updates/discussions). The 31st will be Jesse Disney's last Sunday in the part time transition worship director role and Pastor Jamie will be preaching.

Please let me know if you have questions, comments, concerns, etc. I understand these are crazy times. I understand that it can be frustrating. I am for you and would welcome the opportunity to hear your heart.

Grateful to see the Righteous One in the Word,
Pastor Stan
